JOSHUA'S MISSION STATEMENT

“Stay the Course!” We are on the brink of a very big ‘step forward’ in the life and history of Joshua. We have an opportunity to purchase property to the left and right of Faber Rd. This will allow us to protect the church from the encroachment of any businesses or tenants that might be undesirable. Also, we need more parking spaces. Therefore, we have made an offer (both written and verbal) to the property owners. We await their response as we place our hope and trust in our God. The building to the left of Faber requires much work/renovation. So, we are factoring that into our offer to purchase. Only God knows at this point the final outcome. But, we know that ‘...Faith without works is dead...’ So, I have formed a building committee to review our options and recommend to the joint board and church body, a serious and reasonable course of action. As Christians, we place our final decision in the hands of our Sustainer and Provider, the Lord Jesus Christ. Members, please pray! Finally, our chain of family and fellowship has been broken. So, we pray for all the families who have lost loved ones during the past month. May God bless you and give you His peace. Remember, God loves you and I do too!

Joshua Baptist Church is a Christian Church under the direct leadership of the Lord Jesus Christ. We are also a Missionary Baptist Church committed to the salvation of the lost, conversion of the unregenerate, and the spiritual growth of the saved. We seek to follow Christ as He leads us, cultivate a bond of Christian love, one with another; and to truly and tangibly care for those in need. As Christians, we covet a consistent holy and liberated lifestyle that testifies to our being a born again believer in Jesus Christ, as we strive to fulfill our purpose of Reaching People For Christ. Remember, GOD First, we walk by faith and not by sight. -

TO THE MINISTERIAL STAFF OF
JOSHUA BAPTIST CHURCH
WE THE MEMBERS WOULD LIKE TO SAY

Thank you

17 Let the elders who perform the duties of their office well be considered doubly worthy of honor [and of adequate financial support], especially those who labor faithfully in preaching and teaching. 1 Timothy 5:17(AMP)

God's Instrument

I see the hands that hold God's word
And fold in prayer to seek His will.
I see the feet that walk the path
And offers of praise as from lofty hill.

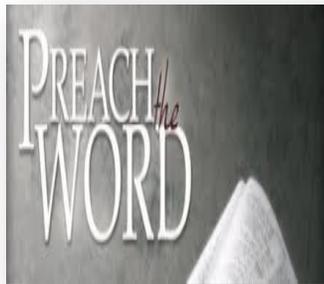

I see the hands that serve Him well,
The ears that seek to hear His call,
The mouth that speaks truth and wisdom,
The busy feet that carry the message to all.

¡Gracias!

I see the heart that was pricked and entered
When God's man answered the gospel call
And yielded His life as a humble servant,
A man who is willing, as was Apostle Paul.

I see all of this as he stands in the pulpit,
An instrument through which God speaks
The words of wisdom, of love and peace,
To lead and guide all those whom God seeks.

1 Thessalonians 5:12-13 (AMP)

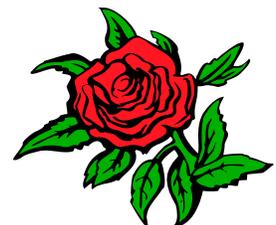

12 Now also we beseech you, brethren, get to know those who labor among you [recognize them for what they are, acknowledge and appreciate and respect them all]—your leaders who are over you in the Lord and those who warn and kindly reprove and exhort you.

13 And hold them in very high and most affectionate esteem in [intelligent and sympathetic] appreciation of their work. Be at peace among yourselves.

Women in Ministry for This Present Age

Thank you for speaking to us... Thank you for calling us... Thank you for keeping us.
We are women in ministry... your warriors, your servants, your hands and feet.
We are women in ministry... we see, hear, feel, and know.
We are women in ministry... thank you, O God.

"The Right Man"

for in due season, we shall reap if we do not lose heart." GALATIANS 6:9 (NKJV)

6. Remember that a man's family reveals the cloth from which he's cut. Take note and decide whether you want your future with the man in your life to look like his present family situation.

7. Check out the patterns of his life. Do you see repeated cycles of drama in his personal kingdom? broken relationships? problems in making commitments? including the job market? mood swings? Is a problem always someone else's fault? Does he embrace responsibility or shirk it? Does he keep his promises? Is he a man of good reputation? Remember all garments look wonderful hanging in the store, but with wear, some begin to unravel. Give yourself time and space to check out the man in your life. Time will always reveal whether or not he is made of the right stuff.

8. Does this man have a vision for his life? Is he running with that vision? Remember, God decided Adam needed help once Adam got busy DOING his assignment. As we saw Adam, a man doesn't need help until he is busy doing what he was created and called to do. Is the man in your life guided by sense of destiny and purpose, or does he just allow life to happen around him?

A man who is not certain of his mission can be a most miserable person and you'll be miserable too if you know where YOU want to go in life. A man who has vision is not intimidated by a woman whose mission statement is clear. He will be your best ally, cheerleader and assistant because he wants you both to make it! A man who cannot be supportive of your achievements because he is floundering in a sea of uncertainty over his own life is not a healthy partner to have and to hold forever. Creating dependencies or feelings of obligation is not the way to get the best out of your man. Somewhere along the way, he will resent you and flee from the smothering burden of obligation he associates you with. You want a man who is firmly anchored in his identity in Christ.

Remember, we are looking for a man who will be priest and leader of his home. His first instinct should be to want to cover you, redeem you, and provide for you. Your job is to decide if this is the man God has ordained for you to complement.

9. Complementary. Do your talents and gifts complement his? Do his gifts complement yours? What about your temperaments? Do you see the two of you as an effective team capable of bringing blessing to the lives of those around you? Do your futures mesh? Can you coordinate your gifts in an attractive and effective way? This is why knowing your purpose is so important. Make sure your hearts beat for mutual causes. When I go shopping I always consider the fabric, the fit and what I already have in my closet. Will my next purchase be a complementary addition to what I already have? If I find that I am going to have to buy shoes and matching accessories to go with a new outfit, I leave it right on the rack. It is too expensive a proposition.

If the man you meet makes you feel that you need to completely reinvent yourself, something is wrong. This is where I ask you to consider the relationship in terms of cost. Is this relationship expensive spiritually? Emotionally or physically? Does your longing for a mate make you willing to forfeit who you are in the process? Or does he see you as the gift that you are? The man in your life should consider you a rare find, a priceless jewel because of you he is getting ready to get blessed big-time!

Any relationship that causes you to feel unworthy, unlovely, unacceptable, undesirable or that you have to work for love, is too expensive! God has called the man to cover, protect and provide not only materially for a woman, but emotionally and spiritually as well. You should be richer in mind, body and spirit for your union with the man of your dreams. The man in your life should make rich deposits into your heart and spirit, not withdrawals.

10. Does he have a healthy love & acceptance of himself? Make sure the man in your life has taken time to heal from past relationships and has made peace with himself. How he cares for himself is how he will care for you. A man's relationship with God is crucial here. His love for himself will only be as strong as his love for God. This is not something that you can impart. You cannot be his savior or teacher. That is out of spiritual order.

In his rightful place as your personal priest, he should be leading you to richer relationship with Christ. If he is causing you to compromise your Faith and destabilize your walk, if he is leading you into sexual sin or causing you to be distracted from your commitment to Christ, the Relationship is too expensive. Offending the Lover of your soul, who promises you eternal love, is too high a fare to pay for a ride that has a Limited run. If you and your man can't soar in the Spirit, when the force of your love for another is tested by the pull of gravity of the world, your union will not be able to survive. So you decide. How much is your life worth? How much is your love worth? You will be able to accept only what you believe you deserve. God Himself calculated the worth of your love and decided it was worth His life. He now pledges you His love for eternity.

Yes, Jesus sets the example for all others to follow when He paid a ransom for His bride. Should you expect less from a mortal man? Throughout the Biblical age, men were willing to pay the cost for the hand that they desired. The truth of the matter is everyone knows that anything worth having costs...and no one gets a ride in this life for free.

To all the single ladies, this is a must read!! Even married women will enjoy this. Mothers, share this with your daughters (and sons). To all the single men, a woman is not supposed to chase you!! If you have her chasing, then she is not the one for you!!

Spiritual Principals --

"Let us not grow weary while doing good,

1. The Right Man. First, we must allow our Heavenly Father to do the picking. And second, the decision for a mate must be made on a spiritual and intellectual basis before it's made on an emotional one. "What about love? Shouldn't that be the third, you ask? No, and I'll tell you why. "The heart is deceitful above all things and beyond cure. Who can understand it? (Jer. 17:9).

The heart is willful and is driven by its own agenda. It does not consider things rationally and intelligently - it just loves to love! Therefore you have to point it in the right directions: "Above all else, guard your heart, for it is the wellspring of life" (Prov.4:23). Whenever you meet a man, you need to get clearance from God, check out his attributes, and then allow your heart to engage. Dating exists not for mating; it exists for collecting data. I believe that the biblical design would be friendship, courtship and then marriage. Friendship is two people walking together in agreement and accountability, learning and growing together. Courtship follows the mutual agreement to commit to one another exclusively - it is the decisive turning toward the agreed-upon goal of the marriage altar. It is a period of laying a foundation and preparing your life together after marriage. But dating?

Well, if you do date, use the time wisely to gather facts: Check out the fabric. Is the person mate material? Does this man have an intimate relationship with the Father through Jesus Christ? Does he care what God thinks about his behavior? Is he accountable to God as well as another co-laborer in the faith? Accountability is an important factor. It is imperative to maintaining a committed relationship. Is your potential spouse a member of the same family - the family of God? Scripture is clear on this: "Do not be yoked together with unbelievers. For what do righteousness and wickedness have in common? Or what fellowship can light have with darkness?" (2 Cor 6:14).

You need to have common interests and values and agree on the essentials of living day to day. You have a similar spiritual walk. You eat the same spiritual diet. You enjoy a lot of similar things. You have like interests, like goals in life, like opinions on basic life issues. You have had like experiences in your background. Though there is some truth to the idiom that opposites attract, like-minded folks fare better together. Furthermore, does he want to get married? If you want to be married and your dreamboat isn't interested, don't waste your time.

Remember, women fall in love and get married. Men decide to get married and then look for a wife. Note the difference in order. So if a guy says he's not looking for anything serious, take his words seriously. If he's not going in your direction, get off the bus and wait for the right one.

2. Does this man want you? Is he pursuing you? The man who is right for you will pursue you, and God's hand in the relationship will be clear. No guessing, no dead ends. Scripture says: "He who finds a wife finds what is good and receives favor from the Lord" (Prov. 18:22). Note - who finds whom? THE MAN FINDS THE WIFE. From the beginning of time, God has transported men & women across the world in order to put them together. At the RIGHT TIME, He will bring that man on the scene and he will find you. In God's perfect design, the man is the one who recognizes his mate.

Adam has no problem recognizing that Eve was his missing rib. You do not need to strategically place yourself anywhere. You don't have to help a guy out because he's shy! Men will do whatever they have to do to get what they truly want. The man in your life should recognize you as the pearl of great price in his life and be willing to do whatever he must in order to gain your hand. If he is passive about gaining your affections, take it as a sign that he is not interested.

Many a woman's mother has suggested that it is a good idea to marry a man who loves you more than you love him. As cold as that sounds, it actually might be scriptural if you stop to think about it: "We love him because he first loved us" (1 John 4:19). Until then, take the ultimate chill pill. You don't need a bunch of men in your life to make you feel all right about yourself. You need only one man your man, the one God has selected to select you. And trust me, the right man at the wrong time can be just as awful as the wrong man at any time. So trust God's timing in this. He is the ultimate matchmaker.

Relax, sit pretty and allow yourself to be found! Again - WAIT until the man voices his intentions. He should take the lead in establishing the relationship. You may have an inkling that he is the one, but God will use the man to set the tone of the relationship. Allow him the opportunity to woo you - this is your first act of submission. Jesus set the standard for all men to follow. They should love us first. And they should lead the relationship.

3. The man in your life should not desire to move into your house, only into your heart. A man who prepares for your future has made his intentions clear. A man who is husband material has the means to take care of a wife. He is a responsible human being who understands he needs to have something to offer.

4. Check out his buddies. Everyone knows birds of the same feather flock together, yet most women fail to see the connection between a man and his friends. A man's pals tell you a lot about the person that you haven't seen yet. They reveal things about the guy's character that might be hidden when he is on good behavior. Everyone knows how to put his best foot forward. Don't stay focused on the foot; check out the rest of the body!

5. Check out his relationship with his mother. How does he treat her? This is your preview of how he will treat you. There are lots of men who, because of a negative relationship with their mothers, really don't like women, yet say they do. Unresolved issues between mother and son continue between husband and wife.

PRAISE REPORT

Always giving thanks to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Ephesians 5:20

To God Be The Glory!!! My Name is Bro. Charles

Pinckney, and I want to share a testimony with you of what God did for me. On the day of July 31, 2010, I was involved in a tragic accident. I was hospitalized for one day, and God healed me. By the grace of God, I am still alive, and I want to say,

"I Thank God".

I thank God for JESUS CHRIST.

I thank God for THE POWER OF HIS BLOOD.

I thank God for THE HOLY SPIRIT.

I thank God for HIS GUARDAIN ANGEL.

I thank God for GIVING ME ANOTHER CHANCE.

I thank God for DELIVERING ME OUT OF MY PAIN.

I thank God for HEALING MY SPIRIT, SOUL, AND BODY.

I thank God for MAKING ME HEALTHY AGAIN.

I thank God for HIS LIFE THAT IS FLOWING WITHIN ME.

I thank God for BEING IN THE HOSPITAL AS A HEALER.

I WILL CONTINUE TO WORSHIP GOD IN SPIRIT AND IN TRUTH.

JESUS CHRIST IS THE SAME YESTERDAY, TODAY AND FOREVER.

How does the Affordable Care Act affect me | HealthCare.gov

Questions? Call 1-800-318-2596, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week (TTY: 1-855-889-4325).

Open enrollment began October 1, 2013. Coverage begins as early as January 1, 2014. The health care law offers new rights, consumer protections, and benefits like free preventive care.

Young Adults

New coverage options: If you're under age 26, you can be covered on your parent's health insurance plan now if it allows for dependent coverage. If you're under 30, you are eligible for a lower premium "catastrophic" plan through the Marketplace starting in 2014.

Get more preventive care, for less: Many insurance companies are now required to cover preventive care for free. This includes 15 covered benefits for all adults, 22 for women (including pregnant women), and 26 for children.

Save money: You may be eligible for lower costs on your monthly premiums for private insurance. You could also be able to save on out-of-pocket costs. You may also be eligible for coverage through Medicaid in your state. Your children might be able to get coverage through the Children's Health Insurance Program \(CHIP\).

Get the latest information about the Marketplace: Sign up for email or text updates and we'll let you know about key dates and news about the Marketplace.

Women

New Coverage Options: In the Marketplace, insurance companies won't be able to deny coverage to women due to pre-existing conditions, like cancer or being pregnant.

Choose your doctor: In the Marketplace, you can choose from any primary care provider, OB-GYN, or pediatrician in your health plan's network without a referral.

Save money: You may qualify for lower costs on your monthly premiums or out-of-pocket costs for private insurance.

Women can't be charged more for health coverage than men. The Marketplace will also let you know if you qualify for coverage under Medicaid or the Children's Health Insurance Program \(CHIP\).

Get more preventive care, for less: Many insurance companies are now required to cover preventive care for free. This includes 22 covered preventive benefits for women like mammograms, well-woman visits, contraception, and more.

4 Things to Know for Pregnant Women

- Starting in 2014, health plans can't refuse you coverage or charge you more because you're pregnant.
- Health plans must also cover free preventive care like gestational diabetes screening and breastfeeding support for women and well-baby visits and vaccines for children.
- Essential health benefits such as pregnancy and newborn care, along with vision and dental care for children, will be covered.
- Visit InsureKidsNow.gov to learn more about coverage for pregnant women through Medicaid and the Children's Health Insurance Program \(CHIP\).

Small Businesses

SHOP for the best coverage: Small businesses with generally fewer than 50 employees can get insurance for their employees in the Small Business Healthcare Options Program \(SHOP\). Open enrollment begins October 1, 2013. Find out what you can do to get ready to enroll.

Save money with employer tax credits: If you have fewer than 25 full-time employees, pay average yearly wages below $50,000 per employee, and pay at least 50% of the cost of health care coverage, you may qualify for a small business health care tax credit. Starting in 2014, the only way to get this credit is if you provide your insurance through SHOP. In 2014 the small business tax credit will be 50% of the amount you pay in premiums (35% for non-profits).

Covering employees is optional: No businesses are required to provide health insurance to their employees.

Employer Shared Responsibility payments: If you have at least 50 full-time equivalent employees and don't offer health insurance that meets certain minimum standards, you may need to make an Employer Shared Responsibility payment.

Get the latest information: Visit the Small Businesses page and sign up for email updates.

Seniors

Medicare coverage is protected: Under the health care law, your existing Medicare-covered benefits won't be reduced or taken away. You don't have to replace your Medicare coverage with Marketplace coverage. For questions about Medicare, visit Medicare.gov, call 1-800-MEDICARE or TTY: 1-877-486-2048.

Save money on drugs: If you're in the prescription drug "donut hole", you'll get more than 50% off when buying Part D-covered brand-name prescription drugs. You save on generics too. The donut hole will be closed completely by 2020.

Get more preventive care, for less: Under the health care law, Medicare now covers certain preventive services, like mammograms or colonoscopies, without charging you for the Part B coinsurance or deductible. You also can get a free yearly "Wellness" visit.

The Health Insurance Marketplace: If you're under 65 and don't have Medicare or Medicaid coverage, you can find coverage and pricing options in the Health Insurance Marketplace. You may qualify for savings on your monthly premiums or lower out-of-pocket costs for private insurance.

Get the latest information: Visit the Individuals & Families page and sign up for email updates.
People with Disabilities

New coverage options: Most insurance plans can no longer deny you coverage or charge you more because you have a disability or pre-existing health condition.

Save money: The health care law expands the Medicaid program to more Americans, including people with disabilities. Medicaid covers many people with disabilities and some adults under age 65 with modest incomes. Besides free or low-cost coverage through Medicaid, you may also be able to save money on your monthly premiums or out-of-pocket costs for private insurance.

Long term care: State Medicaid programs will also be able to offer additional services to help those who need long-term care at home and in the community. To learn more about programs for people with disabilities, visit www.acl.gov.

No more limits: Insurance companies can no longer impose lifetime dollar limits on your coverage. Yearly limits generally will be prohibited for plan and policy years starting in 2014.

Get the latest information: Visit the Individuals & Families page and sign up for email updates.

Families with Children

New coverage options: You may be able to cover your child, teen, or young adult on your health plan. If you have children under age 26, you can cover them on your plan if your plan allows dependent coverage.

Get more preventive care, for less: Many insurance companies are now required to cover preventive care for free. This includes 15 covered benefits for all adults, 22 for women (including pregnant women), and 26 for children.

Get lower costs on coverage: You or your child may qualify now for free or low-cost health coverage through Medicaid and the Children's Health Insurance Program \(CHIP\). You and your dependents may also be eligible to get lower costs on your monthly premi-

RMHC Wish List Collection

Help fulfill our day-to-day household needs

Joshua's D.R.E.A.M. (Developing Responsible Educated Adults through Mentoring) ministry is collecting items for the Ronald McDonald House. We are asking Joshua members to donate items on this wish list that are needed to help families who stay at Ronald McDonald House while their children receive medical treatment at MUSC for complex illnesses.

Please place your donations in the marked boxes in the fellowship hall.

Donations will be collected through October 12.

If you need additional information please see
Sis. Tamisha Hill, Sis. Cheryl Reid, Sis. Andre Oree or Sis. Dolores Simmons.

Thank you in advance for your giving spirit.
