Good Friday Night Service, March 25th at 7pm. I will also baptize all candidates for baptism at that time. On Easter Sunday we will begin our Services with our Sunday School Program at 9AM - to include speeches, readings, and other expressions of praise to our victorious LORD. Next, members if you want your children to participate on the program, (and I hope you do), please see Deacons C. Anderson or F. Brown – Please! Also, Lady Grove would like to thank all who worked tirelessly to make the 2016 Women's Retreat a resounding success.

Recently we had someone use a pen or marker to deface some of the pews -probably a child. Members, keep a close eye on your children during meetings or rehearsal times. I believe we all want God's House to be clean, and well-kept at all times. Thank you for your help. Finally, the JBC Activity Center will soon begin to rise up from the dust. Saints, keep on praying the LORD is near.

Remember, God loves you and I do too.

Celebrate the resurrection of our Lord!

EASTER

We are Easter people! Joy and hope characterize our lives because Jesus rose from the grave that first Easter morning. Beginning with Palm Sunday (Holy Week), we prepare for the greatest church festival of all - the Resurrection of our Lord. This season is a meaningful time for families to spend together as they reflect on their lives as believers and on their relationships with one another.

Celebrating Easter

by William E. Young

What is Holy Week? It's the week from Palm Sunday to Easter - a week that begins and ends in triumph and rejoicing.

On Palm Sunday, we celebrate Jesus' triumphant arrival in Jerusalem. A crowd greeting Him laid palm branches in His path as He entered the village.

On Maundy Thursday (also known as Holy Thursday), we remember that Jesus washed the apostles' feet before sharing bread (His body) and wine (His blood) with them at the Last Supper. Then He said: "This is My command: love one another as I have loved you." (John 15:12)

On Good Friday, Jesus was crucified. On the way to Calvary, He suffered greatly and was crowned with a wreath of thorns. Despite His agony on the cross, Jesus asked God to forgive those responsible before He died.

On Holy Saturday and at Easter Vigil services, worshipers anticipate the joy of Jesus' resurrection.

Easter Sunday celebrates Jesus' resurrection. Early on this day, Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of James went to Jesus' tomb. An angel had rolled back the stone and told them that Jesus had risen. As they ran to deliver the message, they met Jesus, embraced His feet, and worshiped Him.

PRIME TIME with GOD

DAILY REFLECTIONS ON THE WORD, FAITH + LIFE

Jesus: A Prophet without Honor

So they were offended at Him. But Jesus said to them, 'A prophet is not without honor except in his own country and in his own house' (Matthew 13:57 NKJV).

When Jesus returned to His hometown, the people did not receive Him; He was the Prophet Without Honor. The people of Nazareth knew Him as a boy growing up among them. As a young carpenter, Jesus worked among them. But, when Jesus first returned to announce He was fulfilling Scripture (Luke 4:21), they rejected Him and, "were filled with wrath" (Luke 4:28). They ran Jesus out of town, and some tried to throw Him off a cliff (Luke 4:24). As a result, Jesus said, "A prophet is honored everywhere except in his own hometown and among his own family" (Matt. 13:57, NLT).

How could those closest to the Child Jesus, end up rejecting Him? Some were spiritually blinded because of unbelief; they couldn't see the Child who didn't sin. Some were spiritually prejudiced; they were looking for a political Messiah to deliver them. Some were sinfully blinded; they looked at everything through their sinful lusts. As a result, "He did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief" (Matt. 13:58).

Lord Jesus, I know You as my Savior from sin; come into my life. I know You as my guide and protector; come lead me today. I know You as my friend and helper; come dwell in my heart. I know You as my coming King; come, Lord Jesus, in power and glory. Amen.

You must honor Jesus even when some will not.

How do you guard your heart?

In Philippians 4:6-7, Paul tells us that prayer is the pathway to guarding our hearts and minds with the peace of God. Peace comes as a comfort rooted in our trust in God that is expressed in the process of prayer. So, guarding your heart is the result of clear communication.

It begins with prayer to God (as Paul lays out in Philippians 4:6-7) and overflows into communication with the other person. In other words, the key to guarding your heart is to talk to God about the relationship before you talk to the other person about the relationship.

When do hearts become unguarded?

First, hearts become unguarded when you move too fast in the relationship—becoming too vulnerable too quickly. You must lay a foundation of friendship.

Second, hearts become unguarded when you are not seeking God's desires for the relationship. Instead of depending on your own understanding and priorities for the relationship, you must seek God's heart.

Third, hearts become unguarded when there is poor communication about the relationship. This can include poor communication with God in prayer or poor communication with the other person in discussion. If you are too afraid to talk to either of them about an aspect of your relationship, then you probably shouldn't be involved in it.

WHAT DOES "GUARD YOUR HEART" REALLY MEAN IN DATING?

BY PHILLIP BETHANCOURT

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus."
Philippians 4:6-7

Why do you guard your heart?

To understand why you should guard your heart, you must understand what Israel would have understood Solomon to be saying in Proverbs 4:23.

While we view the heart as the seat of our emotions and our will, Israel understood the heart to be the center of the whole person—not just the source of emotions and will but also of wisdom and perspective.

Solomon rightly realized that what you do flows from who you are. That's why he instructs Israel to guard the heart (who you are) because the wellspring of life (what you do) flows from it. It is essential for you to guard your heart in dating because what you do in a dating relationship flows from who you are in a dating relationship.

"Above all else, guard your heart, for it is the wellspring of life."

Proverbs 4:23

How long do you guard your heart?

If we are talking about the type of guarding your heart implied by Christian dating books, then the answer is: guard every aspect of your relationship until God confirms it's wise to move into deeper relational intimacy. (Obviously, the only go-ahead for physical intimacy is in the context of marriage.) In other words, it's a progressive process. But if guarding your heart means protecting who you are so that you can influence what you do, then "How long?" is the wrong question. You should always be protecting your character. In other words, it's a perpetual process. Guarding your heart is one of the most important yet least understood facets of Christian dating. It can paralyze you, or it can liberate you. Guarding your heart is the key to saving yourself for your future spouse in a way that honors God.

TRAGIC CHOICE

(written by unknown author)

Submitted by Mother Helen Hill

They lie on the table side by side
The Holy Bible and the TV Guide.
One is well worn and cherished with pride.
Not the Bible, but the TV Guide.
One is used daily to help folks decide.
No, not the Bible, But the TV Guide.
As the pages are turned, what shall they see,
Oh, what does it matter, turn on the TV.
So they open the book in which they confide,
No, not the Bible, but the TV Guide.

The Word of God is seldom read.
Maybe a verse before they fall into bed.
Exhausted and sleepy and tired as can be,
Not from reading the Bible, from watching TV.

So then back to the table side by side,
Lie the Holy Bible and the TV Guide.
No time for prayer, no time for the Word,
The plan of Salvation is seldom heard.
But forgiveness of sin, so full and free,
Is found in the Bible, not on TV .
